

DREDGE GAYLORD COASTING FLEET STILL ON THE JOB BRINGS SMALL CARGOES

The Hawaiian Dredging Company was today given an additional five days in which to effect the removal of the bark S. C. Allen from its bed of coral off the beach at Diamond Head.

The contract called for the service of the dredge Gaylord which will expire at midnight. The present position of the sailing vessel, coupled with the belief that the bark appears to have withstood the encounter with the reef, led the Hawaiian Dredging Company to ask for an extension of time.

Reports from the wreck received this morning indicate that the Allen has not been moved toward deeper water. Several steel and manila lines extending from the dredge to the bark have parted as a result of the terrific strain imposed upon them. A large force of men are constantly employed in the attempt to save the vessel and her cargo.

Some days ago the owners of the vessel and the cargo abandoned the wreck in favor of the insurance underwriters, who at the present time are in complete charge of salvage operations.

Wreck May Go at Auction.

Should the Hawaiian Dredging Company fail in the attempt to remove the S. C. Allen from her berth of coral and rock, it is rumored that the next step made by the underwriters will be to offer the vessel and the remaining cargo of lumber at public auction to the highest bidder. Just what figure the wreck would bring in the present state is problematical. It is stated that the entire cargo of lumber was insured at the rate of approximately $20 a thousand feet, which figure according to coast market would cover the cost and freight. It is also stated that the hull of the vessel is fully insured.

Unless the Hawaiian Dredging Company succeeds in its work of hauling the bark from the reef, it stands to lose a considerable sum through the vessel. The Gaylord is estimated to be under an expense of between three and four hundred dollars a day.

St. Helena Soon to Load.

Forty thousand cases of preserved pines are to be forwarded to the coast in the steam schooner St. Helena, which is expected to be dispatched for San Pedro, San Francisco and the Columbia river by the latter part of the week. The St. Helena is being discharged of a shipment of 1,500,000 feet of lumber consigned to the U. S. quartermaster department. The vessel, it is said, will return to the islands with a like amount of lumber before completing her charter. Little Sugar on Kauai.

But one shipment of sugar was reported as awaiting transit to Honolulu or the coast on Kauai, according to report brought to this city by officers in the steamer Kinanu. At Kakaia, 4000 sacks of sugar were left behind.

Kauai Landed Supplies.

Material to enter into the construction of quarters for lighthouse attendants at Kohala Point was landed yesterday on the last trip of the U. S. Lighthouse tender Kukul to the big island. A six-room house for the keeper and a concrete oil house are to be built. L. E. Bailey, construction foreman for the United States Lighthouse Service, is in charge of a gang of thirteen men; a water pipe has been run down from Kohala Mill, and a construction camp of one iron building and two tents put up. The concrete foundations for the keeper's house are already set, and in about six weeks more the work will be completed. The house will be plastered inside and have an asbestos shingle roof. Mr. Bailey says that a new concrete lighthouse is to be built, probably before the end of the fiscal year, July 1. It will have an incandescent oil lamp, and will be similar to the lighthouse at Barber's Point, Oahu.

Much Cargo But Few Passengers.

The first activity along the Honolulu waterfront for the week will develop with the arrival of the Matson Navigation liner Lurline from San Francisco which is expected to arrive at an early hour tomorrow morning. The Lurline will be bringing a full quota of cabin passengers, is bringing down a large freight including 3120 tons for Honolulu. The vessel is to call at Kahului, where more than two hundred tons of merchandise and supplies are to be discharged. There are fourteen automobiles for the islands. A late wireless received at the agency of Castle and Cooke of this city states that the Lurline is bringing 41 cabin passengers. In sailing for San Francisco on Oct. 28th, the Lurline will take but a very small amount of sugar. The offering of preserved and fresh pines is reported as fair.

The former Oceanic liner Alameda, once a crack vessel in the San Francisco-Honolulu trade, and now flying the home-flag of the Alaska Steamship Company, is reported as undergoing extensive alterations and enlargement at a Seattle shipyard. A number of first class passenger accommodations will be added. Officers' quarters will be removed to the boat deck while the purser's office will be changed to a more convenient location. The vessel is now operated between the Sound and Nome.

Captain H. Engalls having retired from the Associated Oil Company ship Falls of Clyde, that vessel was brought down from the coast in command of Captain H. Smith. The Falls of Clyde has been discharged of about 16,000 barrels of fuel oil, consigned to the local branch of the company.

Sugar was conspicuous by its absence in the cargoes brought from island ports in several coasting steamers, which reached port yesterday morning. The Mikahala, from Maui, Molokai and Lanai ports, returned with 25 head of sheep, 19 head of cattle, 94 sacks of corn, 770 sacks of beans, 120 packages of sundries, 143 pigs, 59 bales of hides, and 36 cases of wax. This vessel met with fine weather on the homeward voyage.

The Hall made an extra trip from Kauai ports, bringing 2000 cases of pines, 250 sacks of corn and a quantity of sundries. The Hall is on the berth to sail for the Garden Island at 5 o'clock this evening.

With the return of the steamer Kinanu from Kauai ports there were received 20 sacks of coconuts, 50 sacks of rice, 62 sacks of taro, 114 packages of sundries, 50 cases of honey, 250 head of sheep and 2050 sacks of sugar. The Kinanu will sail on the return trip to the Garden Island tomorrow evening.

HARBOR NOTES

Lumber laden, the schooner Repeat is reported to have left the Sound destined for Honolulu.

The Pacific Mail liner Korea, sailing from Honolulu on Oct. 12, is reported to have arrived at San Francisco yesterday.

Having been discharged of a general cargo of island products, the steamer W. G. Hall will sail for Kauai ports this evening.

Mail forwarded from Honolulu to the coast in the Japanese liner Hong-kong Maru was received at San Francisco Saturday morning.

Owing to the lack of sugar at the island plantation warehouses the inter-island steamers are returning to Honolulu with light cargoes.

A mainland mail amounting to 550 sacks is due to arrive from San Francisco tomorrow morning in the Matson Navigation steamer Lurline.

The Pacific Mail liner Persia is en route from San Francisco to Honolulu and the coast of Asia. This vessel should reach the port about next Saturday.

The inter-island steamer Claudine is on the berth to sail for regular ports of call on Maui at 5 o'clock this evening, taking passengers, cargo and late mail.

Admiral Eben Low returned from a business trip to his Kahoolawe Island estates yesterday and may take a hand in salvage operations on the lumber remaining aboard the distressed bark Allen.

With combustibles as well as other lines of freight, the inter-island steamer Noeua is scheduled to sail for windward Kauai ports at 5 o'clock this evening. The vessel will carry mail but no passengers.

A large crowd gathered at several vantage points along the beach in the vicinity of Diamond Head yesterday and watched the attempt made by the big dredge Gaylord in tugging at the stranded bark S. C. Allen.

The prediction is made that for the next few weeks, coast bound steamers will depart from the islands with rather small amounts of island products. The new crop sugar will be ready for shipment along the middle of December.

The British freighter Strathendrick has not completed the discharge of a shipment of Australian coal at Port Allen according to report brought here by officers in the inter-island service. The vessel is expected to be ready for dispatch by the latter part of the week.

HAWAIIAN WHO AIDED SIZEMORE IS DISCOVERED

The mysterious Hawaiian youth who has been mentioned a number of times in connection with the Sizemore investigation was located today and taken to police headquarters shortly before 3 o'clock. He will be questioned concerning his part in the fracas this afternoon.

John Kaleikini, the youth in question, has been employed on the tug dredge that is attempting to move the bark S. C. Allen, which accounts for the failure of the efforts of the police to locate him during the past several days.

Alex. Platon, Company G, 2d Infantry, was called before Sheriff Jarrett this afternoon and proved a valuable witness for Sizemore. Platon stated that he was a close eye-witness to the affray and that he did not see the officer raise his club or kick the injured Korean. He admitted, however, that following the second attempt made by the Korean to break free, liberty Sizemore may have "punched" the Korean in the ribs a few times with his blackjack. Platon stated that in his opinion the Korean was intoxicated or crazy and that the latter was using a great amount of profanity.

Berry Sizemore, bicycle officer with the police department, now under suspension pending the investigation of charges of extreme cruelty in effecting the arrest of a Korean, proposed to make a strong fight to clear his record as an officer and for the retention of his position on the force.

Sheriff Jarrett will give Sizemore every opportunity of vindicating himself. An effort was made this morning to locate the Hawaiian youth, who is declared to have figured in the assault upon the prisoner. Sheriff Jarrett and several officers started for Palolo, where the man is supposed to reside. The machine bearing the officers broke down and they were obliged to return.

Sizemore claims to have a line on the identity of the man who is stated to have taken a hand in the arrest of the Korean. It is understood that an attempt will be made to show that it was the Hawaiian who delivered one or a series of blows which rendered the prisoner hors de combat and resulted in his being taken to the hospital in an unconscious condition.

Sizemore called at the station today and gave the names of several additional witnesses to the affray which took place at the corner of Nuuanu and Kukul streets a week ago. He states that several women were spectators at the arrest and there will be brought before Sheriff Jarrett at the next session of the investigation.

As quickly as the witnesses are taken to the station, the sheriff will endeavor to have their testimony taken down in the presence of Attorney Atkinson, who represents the Korean's interests at the inquiry.

The charges against Sizemore were lodged by reputable citizens, unconnected, and much damaging evidence against the policeman was introduced at the initial session of the investigation.

Schooner Coates Soon to Sail.

The last of the consignment of lumber brought by the schooner A. F. Coates to the order of the quartermaster department has been discharged and that vessel is expected will be ready to sail for Grays Harbor about Thursday.

James Bruce Off the Harbor. Awaiting a favorable wind, the schooner James H. Bruce, which was towed to sea yesterday rides at anchor. This vessel had been discharged of a shipment of lumber and will return to the Sound in ballast.

HARVARD'S BIG TEAM CONTINUES TO SHOW SPEED

Football Scores and Games of Interest, East and West

(By Latest Mail)
NEW HAVEN, (Conn.), Oct. 4.—University of Maine's football team which last Saturday was smothered by Harvard 34 to 0, gave Yale the biggest surprise in years on Yale field this afternoon by holding the blue to a nothing-to-nothing score. The Maine collegians, although rushed off their feet at times, presented a magnificent defense whenever their goal was threatened.

Yale used a new variation of the Minnesota wing shift, that was a ground game, but whenever a score seemed imminent, there was hesitation, and then fumbling, which cost touchdowns. Once, the blue rushed the ball more than half the length of the field by brilliant running, only to be held for downs within a foot of the line.

Yale's defense was excellent, and only once did Maine make first down—the last play of the game. Captain Ketcham of Yale played a brilliant game in his new position at left guard.

Harvard in Good Form.

CAMBRIDGE, (Mass.), October 4.—Playing a conservative game, the Harvard football eleven registered fourteen points against Bates and held their opponents without a score on the water-soaked gridiron of the stadium today.

At no time was the crimson goal threatened, and only once, when an outside kick netted thirty-five yards, did Bates gain first down. The Harvard team's offense was found wanting at times, especially in the third period, when they failed to score and were held for downs on Bates' three-yard line.

Harvard did not, as was expected, present its full strength today. Bricker scored an easy field goal from the twenty-yard line.

PENNSYLVANIA Wins 10 to 0.
PHILADELPHIA, October 4.—Well executed forward passes enabled the University of Pennsylvania football team to defeat the Lafayette College eleven on Franklin field today by the score of 10 to 0.

It was a veteran team that Lafayette sent against a mixed line-up of old and new players, and the latter had to resort to much open play to gain the victory. Pennsylvania could make but little impression on Lafayette's line, and had to fall back on forward passes. In this department, the Quakers gave a splendid exhibition, the majority of their passes being successful. In the first period Pennsylvania, by open play, got the ball to Lafayette's forty-yard line, from which Mark Marshall drop-kicked a beautiful field goal.

Toward the end of the game Pennsylvania frequently resorted to the forward pass, and worked the ball to Lafayette's twenty-five yard line by this means.

Princeton in a Walk.

PRINCETON, (N. J.), October 4.—Princeton swamped Fordham in football this afternoon by a score of 69 to 0. The "Tigers" played an open game. The team which started for Princeton soon was changed for the second-string men, and these in turn were relieved by other substitutes until nearly the entire squad had a chance to play.

NO BIG CHINESE LAUNDRY, SAYS CHU GEM

Upon investigation there does not appear to be anything in the story of a movement on the part of several wealthy Chinese to start a big laundry and engage in sharp competition with the Sanitary Laundry Company, which lately absorbed the American laundry, particularly in regard to flat rates for hotel and lodging house work.

Several Chinese capitalists were seen by a Star-Bulletin reporter this morning, none of whom had heard of the reported enterprise of their countrymen.

"It is not true," was the emphatic statement of Chu Gem, manager of the establishment of Quong Sam Kee Co. "There may be one or two men thinking of such a thing, but it would be impossible to organize the Chinese laundry interests on a large plan. One or two of the laundries might combine but not all."

"I have seen several of the largest Chinese laundrymen this morning and read the story to them, and none of them knew anything about the reported plan."

"Two or three of the Chinese laundries use modern machinery, but the rest follow the old hand methods, which are not so hard on the clothes as machinery is."

Judge Whitney today granted a divorce to Antonia Raposo Freitas from Manuel Raposo Freitas, whom she accused of extreme cruelty.

The divorce case of Pauline Louise McQueen against James Louis McQueen, in which unsupportable charges were made by both sides, was renewed in Circuit Judge Whitney's court this morning, the plaintiff completing its case shortly before noon.

The proceedings thus far have been marked by testimony of an unusual nature, given by four daughters of the couple, tending to support the allegation of the wife and mother. The hearing may be concluded tomorrow.

INDICTMENTS DISPOSED OF

Seventeen of the 22 indictments returned by the federal grand jury last Saturday were disposed of at a busy session of the U. S. district court this morning. Ten of the accused persons entered pleas of guilty, most of them being sentenced, while a few pleaded not guilty and a few others were granted further time before entering their pleas.

The cases of George A. Bower and Mrs. J. F. Hyland, both indicted on a charge of opium smuggling and who are believed to be implicated in the same affair, were continued until tomorrow morning for arraignment, while the defendants were released on their personal recognizance until that time. The indictment against the woman names her as Mrs. J. F. Hyland, but adds "full and true name unknown."

The other cases handled today were as follows:

Simon Popov, alias Charles W. Boyd, and Gregory Gustobin, held for sending obscene matter through the mail; Popov pleaded not guilty; Gustobin confessed guilt and his sentence will be pronounced later.

Joe Alvaros, held for attacking David P. Jellings on federal property, or on the postoffice steps; pleaded not guilty; hearing to be set later.

George W. Smith, embezzlement of postoffice money in registration division; pleaded guilty; sentenced to one year's imprisonment and to pay a fine of $240.65, the amount alleged to have been embezzled, also court costs.

Benvaldo Bonilla, assault committed on federal property, pleaded guilty and was given a sentence of one month and costs of the case.

Francisco Baga and Petra Rodriguez Huete, violation of the Edmunds Act; both pleaded not guilty and the case was continued to be set for hearing.

Teruji Ishida and Seye Kurihara, violation of the Edmunds Act; continued for plea later.

Ropino, purchasing government property from a soldier, pleaded guilty; fined $10 and costs.

Aeshu, opium smuggling from the Shimo Maru; pleaded guilty and given two months' imprisonment and costs.

T. S. Choy, opium smuggling; reservation of plea to Sept. 23 granted; bail set at $250.

Zenzi Arai, opium smuggling; pleaded guilty; sentenced to two months' imprisonment and assessed court costs.

Kosuke Okada, opium smuggling; pleaded guilty; given 45 days' imprisonment and assessed court costs.

Frank Rheel, opium smuggling; pleaded guilty; two months' imprisonment and costs.

Kim Lee Sup, forging postoffice money order; arraignment continued to be set; bail set at $200.

Suye Matsumoto and Kaetsu, violation of the Edmunds Act; former granted reservation of plea until called; latter pleaded guilty and given six months' imprisonment and costs.

Ernest Marks, violation of Edmunds Act; pleaded guilty; one year's imprisonment and costs.

BERT BOWER ONCE MORE IS ARRESTED

Following his apprehension by U. S. Marshal Hendry late Saturday afternoon it became known that George A. "Bert" Bower, the chauffeur and former baseball umpire again is in the toils facing an indictment accusing him of complicity in an opium smuggling attempt. It is understood he is alleged to have been associated in the new affair with Mrs. J. F. Hyland, the white woman indicted by the federal grand jury and arrested early the same afternoon.

Because Bower already faces several charges of white slavery and is under heavy bond no new bond was demanded of him in the present instance, and he was released on his personal recognizance. The woman's bail was set at $500.

RESEARCH CLUB TO DISCUSS ROADS

The Research Club, a new and wide-awake organization, will meet at the offices of the Waterhouse Company in the Stangenwald building at 7:30 this evening to discuss the street and road situation in the city and county of Honolulu. Statutes relating to the opening and to the improvement and repairs of highways within the district of Honolulu have been distributed to members and the discussion will be particularly along the lines of the new law pertaining to the opening of new streets.

More than a dozen Japanese who are alleged to have participated in a money scam in which they succeeded in compelling Liquor Inspector Fennell and Detective Woo, to relinquish a prisoner, are likely to be brought before the district court upon a charge of interfering with an officer in the performance of his duties.

Fennell and Woo, visited windward Oahu Saturday night in quest of a blind pig. They located an offender against the municipal license laws near the pineapple cannery, in effecting the arrest of Yoshimoto, a Japanese cook, the officers appeared to have called down the united wrath of about one hundred other Japanese. The mob roughly handled the peace missions who were obliged to make a hasty retreat. Fennell states that he will return to the scene of conflict and will bring the Japanese to justice. The charge is made that liquor was sold there without a license.
